Inland Revenue's tax agents' update

Issue No 237 • August 2020 • IR787

REMINDERS

We have several planning calendars to help you meet your obligations. Remember that if a due date falls on a weekend or public holiday, we can receive your return and payment on the next working day without a penalty being applied. But for provincial anniversary dates, this only applies if you're in the province celebrating the holiday, and only if you usually make tax payments over-the-counter at Westpac.

Small Business Cashflow (Loan) Scheme deadline extended

Applications have been extended further for the Small Business Cashflow (loan) Scheme (SBC). Applications opened on 12 May 2020 and can now be submitted up to and including 31 December 2020.

All other conditions remain the same. For details of the loan conditions go to ird.govt.nz/covid-19

You can find details about all our COVID-19 relief initiatives, including eligibility criteria and applying for the SBC loan at ird.govt.nz/covid-19

Automatic income tax assessments - increase to write-off threshold

A temporary increase to the threshold for write-offs of assessed tax to pay for qualifying individuals (ie, those who only receive reportable income and an automatically calculated income tax assessment) from $50 to $200 for the 2019-20 tax year aims to ease financial stress resulting from COVID 19.

These write offs don't apply to customers who are required to file an IR3 tax return but we can consider write-offs for these customers in some circumstances. You can find more information in Standard Practice Statement 18/04 Options for relief from tax debt.

Individuals who have been issued a 2020 IR3 that have only received reportable income will be eligible for the write-off. You will need to contact us to have your client's assessment type updated so the write-off can be applied.

It is important to remember each taxpayer will have circumstances unique to them and there is a range of additional tax relief available for the 2020 year for those whose income has been affected by a downturn in business due to COVID-19.
