

IRD number application - non-resident/offshore individual

For full details go to ird.govt.nz/offshore

Only use this form if you're a non-resident or offshore person.

An offshore person is someone who:

- is a New Zealand citizen who has been overseas for the last three or more years continuously (and is not currently in New Zealand),
- does not have a New Zealand residence visa granted by Immigration New Zealand, has a New Zealand residence class visa and has been overseas for the last twelve months continuously (and is not currently in New Zealand).

If these do not apply then use the IRD number application - resident individual - IR595 form.

or

Note: If you're an Australian citizen present in New Zealand at the time you're applying for your IRD number you will complete an IRD number application - resident individual - IR595 form.

To apply for an IRD number for you or a child in your care

Use the applicant checklist on page 2 before completing the form and signing the declaration on page 5. If you're in New Zealand take the form with the original and legible copies of supporting documents and photo ID for an "In person verification" to an Automobile Association (AA) Driver Licensing agent.

If you're outside New Zealand, and you understand that Inland Revenue can't guarantee that emails won't be intercepted or read while in transit, email to: offshore@ird.govt.nz or post to:

Inland Revenue, PO Box 39050, Wellington Mail Centre 5045, New Zealand

If you're outside New Zealand only send legible copies of supporting documents and photo ID.

If your request is URGENT then clearly state the reason why on a separate piece of paper.

To apply for an IRD number for you

You must provide each of the following:

- a form of photographic identification, such as a passport or an overseas driver licence
- proof of your current or most recent previous address, which may include:
  - a utility (eg, electricity or water) statement
  - national identity card or overseas driver licence (if not used as photographic identification)
- proof of your intended activity in New Zealand, see the notes for Question 8 on page 2
- proof of your fully functional New Zealand bank account or proof that customer due diligence has been completed see the notes for Question 10 on page 2.
- proof of your taxpayer identification number (TIN) or reason why you do not have a TIN - see the notes for Question 9 on page 2

To apply for an IRD number for a child

or

If you're applying for a child who is in your care and they're under 16, you must provide the following.

For you:

- a form of photographic identification refer to "To apply for an IRD number for you".
- proof of your current or most recent previous address refer to "To apply for an IRD number for you".

For the child:

- a document which shows the relationship between you and the child, eg,
  - a full birth certificate
  - court documents showing the child's and caregiver's names, eg, adoption papers, parenting orders, guardianship orders
- Documentation as stated in the section To apply for an IRD number for you

If you have any questions about the required documents please call us on 0800 377 774 (if calling from New Zealand) or +64 3 951 2020 (if calling from overseas).

If the documents you provide are in another name, you must provide a legible copy of the document that confirms how your name was changed, eg, marriage certificate, deed poll, change of name certificate.

Question 1 - children under 16

If you're applying on behalf of a child, the IRD number shown here must belong to the person who will provide the relevant documents identifying their relationship to the child. If you're also applying for an IRD number, attach the child's application to your own one.

Questions 2-4 - applicant information

- If you're completing the application for a child, enter the child's information in this section.
- If you're completing the application for yourself, enter your information in this section.
- If you're using a preferred name, which is different from your given name, you must provide a document confirming your preferred name.

Questions 5 - current postal address

Complete only if it's different from the residential address. If not a street address show one of the following:

PO Box	<ul> <li>private or locked bag</li> </ul>
Line 1 - PO Box number	Line 1 - private or locked bag number
Line 2 - box lobby	Line 2 - box lobby

Do not show your tax agent's address here.

Question 7 - contact information

By ticking the box at Question 7b you agree to receive your new IRD number by email. If you provided a mobile phone number, you will also receive a text message with your new IRD number. Inland Revenue will take all reasonable steps to reduce any risk of unauthorised access or release of confidential information. If you do not provide consent, your IRD number will be mailed to the postal address you provided.

Question 8 - reason for applying for an IRD number

Provide proof of the following:

- If buying and/or selling New Zealand real estate the property purchase agreement or letter from your tax agent, lawyer, real estate agent, or property conveyancer confirming activity.
- If for rental property the rental agreement, property purchase agreement or letter from your tax agent confirming activity.
- If for employment your work visa or letter of employment on the employer's letterhead.
- If for a student loan the acceptance letter from the tertiary institution.
- If a director or shareholder of New Zealand registered company a copy of New Zealand Companies Office register or letter from your tax agent to confirm activity.
- If a partner in a partnership the partnership agreement or a letter from your tax agent confirming activity.
- If a trustee of a trust the trust deed or a letter from your tax agent confirming activity.
- If "other", proof of activity or letter from your tax agent confirming activity.

Question 9 - Taxpayer identification number

If you have a taxpayer identification number (TIN) in another country/ jurisdiction outside of New Zealand or as well as New Zealand, you will need to show your most recent TIN and the country/jurisdiction it applies to. Or if you do not have a TIN, give the reason why you do not have one. A TIN can have a different name in other countries, eg, personal, national identity, tax or social security number.

Question 10 - Fully functional New Zealand bank account or customer due diligence completed

Bank account

To prove that you have a fully functional New Zealand bank account, you can provide a bank statement showing at least one deposit and one withdrawal for differing amounts, or a letter from your bank advising the account is fully functional, active or has had Anti Money Laundering checks completed. You can take our Documents to confirm your New Zealand bank account is fully functional - IR984 to your bank. It provides the details your bank needs to confirm your bank account is active. You can download this form from our website ird.govt.nz/forms-guides to take to your bank to show the proof we require.

Customer due diligence by a New Zealand reporting entity

To prove customer due diligence the NZ reporting entity can complete question 10b on this form, or give you a letter confirming customer due diligence has been completed in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009.

Customer due diligence must be completed by a NZ reporting entity. The Department of Internal Affairs, the Financial Markets Authority and the Reserve Bank of New Zealand provide lists of reporting entities.

Where neither a NZ bank account or proof of customer due diligence can be obtained go to ird.govt.nz/offshore for more information.

Question 11 - temporary tax exemption on foreign income (complete this question if you continue to receive income from overseas)

You qualify for a temporary tax exemption on foreign income for four calendar years (up to 49 months) if you meet both these requirements:

- You have qualified as a tax resident in New Zealand.
- You have not been a New Zealand tax resident at any time in the 10 years prior to your arrival date in New Zealand.

Please note:

- You can only claim this exemption once.
- You cannot receive Working for Families (if eligible) while your foreign income is tax-exempt.

For more information on temporary tax exemption on foreign income, go to ird.govt.nz/tte

Question 12 - non-resident contractor or non-resident seasonal worker

- If you have arrived in New Zealand to work as an independent contractor (whether the person paying you is a New Zealand resident or not) you will be a "non-resident contractor" for the first 183 days (in any 12-month period) of your presence in New Zealand.
- You are not an independent contractor if you're working as an employee receiving salary and/or wages from an employer.
- Complete this section if you're a non-resident contractor or a non-resident seasonal worker and will be using the NSW tax code. For more information please ask your employer.

Nominated persons

We cannot discuss your tax affairs with anyone except you. However, you can nominate someone else to do this for you and have access to your Inland Revenue records once you have received your IRD number.

You'll still be responsible for your own tax affairs, so you'll need to make sure any returns are filed and tax is paid by the due date.

For more information, or if you wish to nominate someone to act on your behalf, complete an Elect someone to act on your behalf - IR597 form. You download this form from our website ird.govt.nz/forms-guides. You don't need to complete the IR597 if you're using a tax agent and not a nominated person.

Applicant's checklist

Have you:

- included a form of photographic identification?
- included proof of your residential address?
- included proof of your New Zealand bank account number or confirmation of customer due diligence completed?
- included proof of your intended activity in New Zealand?
- included linking documents for your child, if applying for an IRD number for them?
- completed and signed the application?

Please retain pages 1 - 2 for your own records.

If you're outside New Zealand only send legible copies of these documents.
